

“Catch the Wave” 2010

Sponsored by
Transition Services Liaison Project
In partnership with
SDSM&T, WDT, and BHSU

You're Invited!

What: A conference designed specifically for high school students who have a disability and are considering post-secondary education (either college or technical institute). Parents, high school counselors, and special education teachers are also encouraged to attend!

Date: Tuesday, March 23, 2010

Time: 9:00am — 2:00pm (lunch is provided)
Registration starts at 8:30

Location: Rapid City-SD School of Mines Surbeck Center am, then Western Dakota Tech – Lunch/pm

Registration required! - $5.00 per person

Participants attending the training will learn about preparing for college life, securing appropriate accommodations, and developing self-advocacy and communication skills. There will be panel discussions by college students who have disabilities, as well as disability coordinators from the three schools.

Representatives from Vocational Rehabilitation, DakotaLink, Job Corps, and South Dakota Advocacy Services will also present.

Registration is required by March 16th.

To register, contact Dave Halverson, Transition Liaison, at 347-4467 or email dhalverson@bhssc.tie.net If there is a need for special accommodations, please notify Dave by March 9th.